

Peace Be Upon You.

Location: Costa Rica
CANVAS: 18 x 28
(Silent bid opens at $125)

July 28 - 30

Talk about a surprise! While sight-seeing, came upon this Buddha statue. I was like, ok. Buddha is all around the world. Not until I got a little closer, I realized the features. To my amazement, the face very much has an African, maybe Egyptian, or Aztec/Mayan style to it. I was studying the statue for a while when a native from the island came over and we started talking about this. He explained to me that this was one of the islands that the Mayans (being the main culture) and other cultures used as a port for trading. Perhaps the artist who did this statue used the influence of cultures that came through there, mixing with Buddha. Wonderful educational conversation.

We look forward to the future and invite you to join us in celebrating 25 years of service.

Greetings,

Now in existence for 25 years, TWW Inc. continues to strive to expand its various art educational programs to the communities. Providing free art educational programs for students and parents in the public school system that participate.

Auction results will be recognized in several ways. Your name will be placed on all materials and announcements.

Your generosity will make a difference in our communities by allowing us to continue in our work. We hope that we can count on you to help support our cause.

Publicity Plan

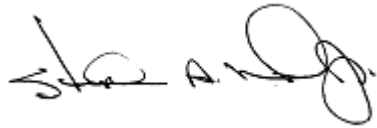

The Journey will be advertised using the full scope of online social media available (i.e., Facebook) and online mailings. All supporters will be listed in DVD Presentation, Special Dinner and Award Ceremony, Website, Newsletters, Program Playbill, Final Reports.

On behalf of TWW Inc, thank you for your guidance and support and giving TWW Inc. the courage, strength, and even at times, the PUSH to continue The Journey!

If you have any questions or concerns in the meantime, please feel free to contact us
